

Energy Use Commitments by Three Big Box Retailers
Wal-Mart Stores Goals set	The Home Depot Goals being developed	Lowe's Pledges made
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Design a 25% more energy efficient store within three years 2. Reduce stores' greenhouse gas emissions 25% within seven years 3. Reduce solid waste in U.S. stores by 25% within three years 4. Increase truck fleet's fuel efficiency by 25% in three years, and double it in 10 years 5. Set long-term goal for zero waste and 100% of energy supply from renewable sources 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Disclose number of stores with Energy Star® or LEED certification 2. Estimate annual cost savings from energy efficiency measures 3. Set targets for renewable energy use and total energy reductions 4. Estimate GHG emissions avoided through energy efficiency measures, and set targets 5. Set formal policies on energy efficiency and O&M programs targeting energy efficiency 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Disclose electricity use per square foot of store and warehouse space 2. Set policy on energy efficiency and integrated management system 3. Disclose power purchased from renewable energy sources 4. Provide information on SmartWay certified partners for shipping, where possible 5. Consider disclosure of GHG emissions and possible targets for renewable energy use

2006 Energy Efficiency Shareholder Resolutions
Company	Outcome	2005 Proposal?
Bed, Bath & Beyond Inc.	June 29 annual meeting	No
Centex Corp.	July 13 annual meeting	Yes - withdrawn
D.R. Horton Corp.	Vote - 5.5%	No
Home Depot (The) Inc.	Withdrawn	No
Liberty Property Trust	Withdrawn	Vote – 7.5%
Lowe's Inc.	Withdrawn	No
Ryland Group Inc.	Omitted by SEC	Vote – 7.9%
Simon Property Group Inc.	Withdrawn	Yes – 7.5%
Standard Pacific Corp.	Vote - 39.3%	No
Whole Foods Market Inc.	Vote – 8.9%	No